

Stewart Weir Bennett Land Surveying Ltd. is a partnership between Stewart Weir & Co. Ltd and Bennett Land Surveying in Fort Saint John, British Columbia. Bennett Land Surveying has been active in British Columbia for over 35 years and Stewart Weir has been active in western Canada since 1912. They have partnered to create a local client focused team providing professional services to the public and private sectors in Central and Northern British Columbia. The combined forces have a mutual goal of client satisfaction and are aiming to providing a high level of service and a wide range of expertise to the region.

Crew Chief – Fort St. John

Job Description/Duties:

- To execute field Geomatics and Engineering projects according to the instruction provided by the client, project manager and field supervisor.
- Ensure field returns (notes and data) are completed according to the manual of Standard Practice and the Stewart Weir manual of Best Practice.
- Direct and train junior staff in the use of data collectors, RTK GPS, Total Stations, Pipe locating and Precision Measuring Devices.
- Coordinate the field crew to function safely and efficiently in remote locations.
- Train junior staff on the safe operation of all types of survey related equipment and train junior staff regarding time management, time entry, equipment and expense reporting.

Qualifications:

- Degree or diploma in Geomatics from a recognized technical school and/or related field experience.
- Good knowledge of survey methodologies, total stations, GPS.
- Good computer skills and able to manage a survey crew.
- Able to work away from home for up to 21 days.
- Able to work out of doors during all seasons and weather.
- Bush experience, chainsaw certified and ATV expert.

For more information about Stewart Weir please visit www.swg.ca

To apply, please submit resume to careers@swg.ca